CONGRATULATIONS TO MAUREEN BELFORD ON HER RETIREMENT

Maureen Belford (left) acknowledges applause from 8th graders, at this year's graduation ceremony.

Maureen has been an educator for over 43 years in the Catholic school system. After 13 years teaching at Assumption Catholic School in Westport she moved to St. Cecilia (now Catholic Academy of Stamford) in 1991. She taught 5th grade math, science and religion, and became assistant to the principal there. In that role she ran the after-school program, working with children while ensuring their safety and comfort.

Her school principal of 24 years calls Maureen "the best teacher I ever worked with . . . mentor and a quiet leader."

Maureen is a lifelong Westporter, an active member of Assumption Church, served as Parish Council Chair and is currently a Eucharist Minister. We are all very proud of her.

Dear Parishioners,

The St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry gratefully acknowledges your generous food donation. We thank you for supporting our organization. Without the support and cooperation of friends like you, we would not be able to continue our outreach to the many people who come to us in need every day.

May God's blessing continue to be with you and your loved ones.

Sincerely,

CONGRATULATIONS TO DEACON GUY DORMEVIL

Deacon Dormevil spent last summer at Assumption as a seminarian. On June 20th, at St. Augustine Cathedral, Bishop Caggiano ordained him a transitional Deacon which is the last step before ordination to the priesthood, which typically occurs a year later after additional pastoral, liturgical and educational preparation. Deacon Dormevil said he was blessed to be taking a step closer toward fulfilling a dream of his father, Gustave, to have a son who was a priest. He was certain his late wife of 29 years, Magalie Adolphe, who died in 2015, was looking down and proud of him for pursuing the vocation to which God called him. His children Guyvensky and Guylendy attended the ordination with family members and friends from the Haitian community. He was born in Haiti to Gustave Dormévil and Angélie Louis Charles, where he was raised with his 15 siblings. In 1988, he left his job as immigration inspector to take refuge in the United States, where he worked as a nursing aide and produce manager. He attended college and received a certificate of English as a Second Language and an associate degree in business administration. On August 3, 2016, Bishop Caggiano approved his application to enter St. John Fisher Seminary, where he began pre-theology studies. A year later, he entered Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary in Weston, Mass., where he will continue his fourth year of theological studies in the fall. In October 2009, he received the Saint Augustine Medal of Service from the Diocese of Bridgeport, while he was serving as a diocesan pastoral council member. In 2014, at the fourth diocesan synod, he served as delegate of the Haitian Community and St. Joseph Parish. Currently, he is one of the five members of the Haitian National Charismatic Committee based in New York. "After my wife's death, my plan was to fulfill the dream of becoming a Permanent Deacon," he said. "However, the Lord had something far better planned for me. He re-kindled the priesthood call he made to me as a young adult so I prayerfully said yes to the call."
